

WEEKLY REMINDERS

November 7, 2006

Home & School Association
223-4868

Cheesecake Sale – Our Cheesecakes Sale will be extended to Monday, November 13th. Please send in your order forms. These cheesecakes are delicious and so easy to store because they are frozen. They are a fabulous addition to any Thanksgiving or Christmas feast. Thank you for all orders.

Craft Fair – Saturday, November 18th we will be hosting our Craft Fair. We are asking for volunteers to either help out that day or to donate some of your favorite baked goods. The baked goods table is a favorite with both vendors and shoppers and we would love to offer a variety of delicious treats. Please see the attached flyer to respond. Remember any hours donated will count towards your Commitment to Service.

Home & School Meeting – Wednesday, November 15th will be our Open Home & School Meeting. We will be hosting Caren Besner, a guest speaker from CAPS, Child Abuse Prevention Service, who will be discussing the topic of Bullying. Ms. Besner is an educator and teacher as well as being in the police department for 17 years. This is a very important topic and we welcome all of you to come and participate in this meeting. We look forward to seeing you at 8:00 pm in Msgr. Lawlor Hall.

After School Program – All students staying for After School Program on Wednesday must bring their own lunch. Lunch will not be provided by the cafeteria.

Reconciliation Meeting – There will be a Parent Meeting for all students receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation this Wednesday evening at 7:30 pm in the Church.

Youth Ministry – The first meeting of the 8th grade Youth Ministry will be on Wednesday, November 8th from 7:30PM until 9:30PM in the Youth Ministry room next to Msgr. Lawlor Hall.

Patriotic No Uniform Day – Thursday will be a No Uniform Day where all students who chose to come out of uniform must wear red, white and blue in celebration of Veteran's Day and bring in $1.00.

Bowling - There will be Bowling this month on Wednesday November 15th (not on the calendar) and November 29th.

Picture Re-take Day – Picture Re-take Day is scheduled for Tuesday, December 12th. Original photo packets must be returned at that time. This will be the only re-take day.

The 8th Grade will be hosting a Bake Sale in Msgr. Lawlor Hall after all the masses this weekend. Please help support our 8th graders.
